1. In respect of a Reservation for Catering Services at the Park Restaurant or De Theekoepel, De Hoge Veluwe is obliged to make the agreed facilities available at the time arranged and, in the manner that is usual at the Park Restaurant or De Theekoepel, to provide the agreed amount of food and drink of the usual quality.
2. In respect of a Reservation for Catering Services involving the hire of rooms and/or sites, De Hoge Veluwe will in principle make the room/site in question available as agreed. However, De Hoge Veluwe has the right to make a different room/site available, unless the alternative provided is clearly perceived as unreasonable and unacceptable, in which case the Guest has the right to cancel the Reservation in respect of hiring a room or site. A difference in the rental price in favour of the Guest will be refunded to the Guest by De Hoge Veluwe if a different room/site is made available. De Hoge Veluwe is not liable for any damage or loss as a result of making a different room/site available.
3. De Hoge Veluwe has the right not to provide the Catering Service or to suspend the service, or to cancel the Catering Agreement, if the Guest does not behave according to the standards of behaviour, including the standards of decency, that apply in the Park or in any other way behaves contrary to the regulations.
4. De Hoge Veluwe has the right to cancel the Reservation, without any obligation to pay damages, due to a well-founded fear of a public order disturbance, following consultation with the competent authority on site.

Article 20 Advance payment and deposit in respect of a Reservation

1. De Hoge Veluwe has the right to ask the Guest for an advance payment on a Reservation. For a Consumer, the maximum value of the advance payment is half of the Reservation Value. If the advance payment is not made within the specified time, De Hoge Veluwe has the right to cancel the Reservation without having to give the Guest a further deadline for the advance payment and without any damages being owed to the Guest.
2. During implementation of the Catering Agreement, De Hoge Veluwe is entitled at any time to require the Guest to pay a security deposit to guarantee payment of the invoice by the Guest. De Hoge Veluwe has the authority to use this deposit to cover all or part of the invoice. Any surplus amount will be repaid to the Guest.

Article 21 Turnover Guarantee in respect of a Reservation

1. If the Guest has given a Turnover Guarantee as part of a Reservation, the Guest will be obliged to pay De Hoge Veluwe at least the amount specified in the guarantee.

Article 22 Payment in respect of a Reservation

1. The Guest is obliged to pay the price specified in the Reservation. Changes to the VAT rate will always be charged on to the Guest. Unless a different agreement is made in writing, the Guest must pay immediately upon receipt of the invoice.

2. If an invoice is drawn up and sent for a bill under €250, De Hoge Veluwe has the right to charge a €20 administration fee. De Hoge Veluwe is free to decide whether to issue an invoice and to refuse a request from a Guest to this effect at any time.
3. Invoices should be paid within 14 days. If payment is not made in good time, the Guest will be in default without a notice of default being required, and from the payment date the Guest will be liable to pay the applicable statutory interest until the date on which payment is made in full. In the case of a non-Consumer, the statutory commercial interest is payable.
4. All judicial and extrajudicial debt recovery costs incurred by De Hoge Veluwe in connection with a late payment by a non-Consumer are payable by the Guest, with a minimum charge of €150 (excluding VAT).

1. If De Hoge Veluwe is, temporarily or otherwise, wholly or partly unable to meet its obligations due to force majeure, there is no right to a refund and/or compensation.
2. In addition to its meaning in law, force majeure in these regulations is defined as: all external causes, foreseen and unforeseen, upon which De Hoge Veluwe can have no influence and as a result of which De Hoge Veluwe is unable to meet its obligations, whether temporarily or not, either fully or in part. These causes include but are not restricted to fire, natural phenomena, power failures, breakdowns, accidents, illness, pandemics, strikes, riots, war, government measures and transport disruptions.

10. When using the Annual Pass, the holder of the Annual Pass must provide proof of identity on request. For identification purposes in connection with the inspection of an Annual Pass, any headgear, sunglasses or other item of clothing covering the face must be removed temporarily. Guests' personal integrity and beliefs will be respected at all times.
11. In the event of violations of the Park Regulations or improper use of the Annual Pass, De Hoge Veluwe has the right to take back the Annual Pass with immediate effect and without giving a refund and to deny the holder of the Annual Pass access to the Park.
